

Security at work

Safety rules on the use of abrasive:

The abrasive should be manipulated with extreme caution, as improper use can break the product and cause injuries. There are several factors that are critical in the use of abrasive products.

MANIPULATION

- It is necessary to manipulate all product with care.
- If there is suspicion that the product has suffered a stroke or abuse, contact the manufacturer.

STORAGE

- Carefully check the packaging of all product to ensure that they have not been damaged during transport.- Almacenar las muelas conforme a la normativa FEPA.
- Store the wheels in accordance with FEPA regulations.
- The space should be free of high humidity and should not experience sensible changes in temperature.

SELECTION AND ASSEMBLY

- Use appropriate wheel for the operation to perform.
- Do not twist or excessively force the product to avoid breakage.

- Visually inspect the wheel and effect the sound test to check that there are no cracks.
- Check that the speed of the machine never exceeds the maximum speed of the wheel.
- Do not alter the measures of the wheel, not force and verify that there is slack.
- Install the wheel following the instructions from manufacturer of the machine.
- Make sure that the machine has installed security measures.
- Always use adequate individual protection for the type of operation to perform.

USING THE PRODUCT

- Before making use of the wheel spin without contact at least 1 minute and control that nobody is in the path of the plane of rotation.